Publisher's Notice.

THE Book which is hereby offered to the lover of sacred song, will be found to contain many of the best selections from the "Choral Hymn-Book," numerous editions of which have been disposed of during the past year. In this book suitable music has been adapted to each piece, thereby greatly facilitating its general use: It also presents some old popular airs, deemed worthy of being preserved from oblivion.

Besides these selections, there will be found many original hymns, written expressly for this work, and accompanied with appropriate music, all adapted to social and congregational worship, and to seasons of religious revival.

The Publisher hereby gratefully acknowledges his obligations to Messrs. Firth, Pond & Co., of New York; together with Messrs. Oliver Ditson & Co., and Messrs. Russell & Tolman, of Boston, for permitting the use, for sacred words, of several of their most popular melodies. His thanks are also due to Rev. Wesley Kenney, for many beautiful original compositions; to Messrs. Perkinpine & Higgins, Philadelphia, for some of Rev. William Hunter's compositions; and to Mr. W. J. Kirkpatrick, for the simple and appropriate arrangement of a large number of the musical compositions found in the work.

With the earnest desire that this little volume may promote the divine glory, and prove a blessing to many, it is hereby submitted to all whose delight it is to "praise God in the sanctuary."

Preface.

IN presenting the "DEVOTIONAL MELODIES" as a candidate for popular favor among those whose spiritual joy and edification are derived largely from "psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs," as they sing and make melody in their hearts unto the Lord; we claim for it nothing more than the place of an humble auxiliary among the means for promoting an ardent and cheerful piety in the hearts of the children of God. It will be found, it is hoped and believed, adapted to this desirable end.

Among its compositions, original and selected, and the musical harmonies accompanying them, the humble, spiritual Christian will find the means of quickening his devotions; while the meetings for prayer and Christian conference may be rendered more enlivening and profitable by their use.

Many musical compositions will be found in this little volume, which have been used hitherto almost exclusively for secular or sensual purposes, but whose touching melodies are well adapted to higher and holier ends, and one object in the present publication is to rescue these from popular profanation, and consecrate them to the nobler ends of Christian edification and comfort. It claims no place among the higher departments of sacred poetry and song. It enters the common field as a helper to works of a justly higher pretension, and offers its aid to all who love to "serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with singing."

To all who recognize the authority of the Divine declaration, that "It is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant, and praise is comely," this little volume is offered, in the sincere and ardent hope that it may be found useful in their preparation to join the "Song of Moses and the Lamb," in the everlasting kingdom of God.

"Stay, sinner, stay!" L. M.

Words by REV. W. KENNEY.

ARRANGED BY W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

ANDANTE.

1. STAY, sinner, stay! the night comes on, When slighted mercy is withdrawn;

The Ho-ly Spi-rit strives no more, And Je-sus gives his pleadings o'er.

2. Stay, sinner, stay! the Father's call
Now bids you come forsaking all;
Oh, come, and he will bid you live,
Oh, come, and freely he'll forgive.
3. Stay, sinner, stay! 'tis Jesus pleads,
For you he weeps, for you he bleeds;
Oh, let his love your heart constrain,
Nor let him weep and bleed in vain.
4. Stay, sinner, stay! the Spirit cries,
Awake, and from the dead arise;
Arise and plead for mercy now,
And at the cross repenting bow.
5. Stay, sinner, stay! your life soon past,
Will end in mourning at the last;
As death's dark vale comes full in view
With none to guide you safely through.
6. Come, sinner, come! though guilty now,
At Jesus' feet submissive bow,
And freely all shall be forgiven;—
Oh, come, and taste the joys of heaven.
7. Come, sinner, come! a home above,
Where all is light, and joy, and love,
Invites you now to haste away,
To realms of everlasting day.
8. See, sinner, see! where loved ones stand,
All saved in heaven—a happy band;
Oh, come, and join them on that shore,
Where death and parting are no more.

Rejoicing in the Prospect of Heaven. P. M.

COPYRIGHT SECURED.

ARRANGED BY W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. A FEW more days on earth to spend, And all my toils and cares shall end, Then I shall see my God and Friend, And praise his name on high.

There's no more sighs and no more tears, There's no more pains and no more fears, But God and Christ and heaven appears Unto the ravished eye.

2. Then, O my soul! despond no more,
 The storm of life will soon be o'er.
 And I shall find the peaceful shore
 Of everlasting rest.
 O happy day! O joyful hour!
 When freed from earth, my soul shall tower
 Beyond the reach of Satan's power,
 To be forever blest.

3. My soul anticipates the day,
I'd joyfully the call obey,
Which summons then my soul away
 To seats prepared above.
There I shall see my Saviour's face,
And dwell in his beloved embrace,
And taste the fulness of his grace,
 And sing redeeming love.
4. Though dire afflictions press me sore,
And death's black billows roll before:
Yet still by faith I see the shore,
 Beyond the rolling flood;
The heavenly Canaan sweet and fair,
Before my ravished eyes appear;
It makes me almost think I'm there,
 In yonder bright abode.
5. To earthly cares I'd say farewell,
And triumph over death and hell,
And go where saints and angels dwell,
 To praise the eternal Three.
I'll join with them who're gone before,
Who sing and shout, their sufferings o'er,
Where pain and parting are no more,
 To all eternity.
6. Adieu, ye scenes of noise and show,
And all this region here below,
Where naught but disappointments grow,
 A better world's in view,
My Saviour calls! I haste away,
I would not here forever stay:
Hail! ye bright realms of endless day!
 Vain world, once more, adieu.

TUNE.—"REJOICING IN THE PROSPECT OF HEAVEN."

1. COME on, my partners in distress,
My comrades through the wilderness,
My comrades through the wilderness,
 Who still your bodies feel:
Awhile forget your griefs and fears,
And look beyond this vale of tears,
And look beyond this vale of tears,
 To that celestial hill.
2. Beyond the bounds of time and space,
Look forward to that heavenly place,
Look forward to that heavenly place,
 The saints' secure abode;
On faith's strong eagle pinions rise,
And force your passage to the skies,
And force your passage to the skies,
 And scale the mount of God.

Where my friends and my kindred eternally rest;
Where the glorified spirit no languor shall know,—
To that home prepared for me, oh! when shall I go!

And the skies never more are with clouds overcast,
Where the storm rages not, nor the chilling winds blow,

When I'll bask in the smile of the Saviour I love,
And a crown never fading his hand will bestow;

MODERATO.ARRANGED BY J. H. VON NARDROFF.

1. WHAT to me are earth's pleasures, and what its flowing tears? What are all the sorrows I de-plore? There's a song ev-er swelling—still lin-gers on my ears: Oh, sor-row shall come a-gain no more.

Chorus.

is for-ev-er o'er; Hap-py now—ev-er hap-py on Canaan's peaceful shore. Oh, sorrow shall come again no more!

2. I seek not earthly glory, nor mingle with the gay;
I covet not this world's gilded store;
There are voices now calling from the bright realms of day
Oh, sorrow shall come again no more!
Chorus.—'Tis a song from the home of the weary, &c.
3. Though here I'm sad and drooping, and weep my life away,
With a lone heart still clinging to the shore,
Yet I hear happy voices which ever seem to say,
Oh, sorrow shall come again no more!
Chorus.—'Tis a song from the home of the weary, &c.
4. 'Tis a note that is wafted across the troubled wave;
'Tis a song that I've heard upon the shore:
'Tis a sweet-thrilling murmur around the Christian's grave:
Oh, sorrow shall come again no more!
Chorus.—'Tis a song from the home of the weary, &c.
5. 'Tis the loud-pealing anthem—the victor's holy song,
Where the strife and the conflict are o'er:
When the saved ones forever, in joyous notes prolong,
Oh, sorrow shall come again no more!

1. My God, my life, my love, To thee, to thee I call;

I can-not live if thou re-move, For thou art all in all.

2. Thy shining grace can cheer
This dungeon where I dwell;
'Tis paradise when thou art here;
If thou depart, 'tis hell.
3. The smilings of thy face,
How amiable they are!
'Tis heaven to rest in thine embrace,
And nowhere else but there.
4. To thee, and thee alone,
The angels owe their bliss;
They sit around thy gracious throne,
And dwell where Jesus is.
5. Not all the harps above
Can make a heavenly place,
If God his residence remove,
Or but conceal his face.
6. Nor earth, nor all the sky,
Can one delight afford,
Nor yield one drop of real joy,
Without thy presence, Lord.

Where all my pleasures roll
The circle where my passions move,

"Hope of Heaven." P. M.

ARRANGED BY J. H. VON NARDROFF.

1. WHEN pulse beats low, and cheeks grow pale, And storms of life are fiercely driv'n, When fairest prospects quickly fall,

How sweet to have a hope of heav'n!

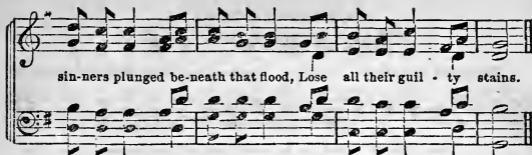

2. When lone and wandering far from home,
No kind relief to us is given;
Oh! what would then of us become,
If we had not a hope of heaven?
3. When friends that seemed most near and dear,
Are from our bosoms swiftly riven,
And life's bright joys in gloom appear,
How sweet to have a hope of heaven!
4. And when the end is drawing nigh
Of life, through which we long have striven,
When we, alas! must droop and die,
How sweet to have a hope of heaven!

"I Will Believe." C. M.

ARRANGED BY W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. THERE is a fountain fill'd with blood, Drawn from Immanuel's veins; And sin-ners plunged be-neath that flood, Lose all their guil - ty stains.

Chorus.

I will believe, I do be-lieve that Je-sus died for me, And here and here - af - ter I hap - py shall be.

2. The dying thief rejoiced to see,
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.
3. Thou dying Lamb! thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransom'd Church of God
Are saved, to sin no more.
4. E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be, till I die.
5. Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save,
When this poor lisp'ing, stamm'ring tongue
Lies silent in the grave.
6. Lord, I believe thou hast prepared (Unworthy though I be)
For me a blood-bought free reward,
A golden harp for me!
7. 'Tis strung, and tuned for endless years,
And formed by power divine:
To sound in God the Father's ears

COMPOSED BY JOSIAH LOWE.

1. With tear-ful eyes I look a-round; Life seems a dark and stormy sea; Yet, 'midst the gloom I hear a sound, A heav'nly whis-per-

"Come to me!" "Come to me!" "Come to me!"

2. It tells me of a place of rest;
It tells me where my soul may flee:
Oh! to the weary, faint, opprest,
How sweet the bidding—"Come to me!"
3. When the poor heart with anguish learns
That earthly props resigned must be,
And from each broken cistern turns,
It hears the accents—"Come to me!"
4. When against sin I strive in vain,
And cannot from its yoke get free,
Sinking beneath the heavy chain,
The words arrest me—"Come to me!"
5. When nature shudders, loath to part
From all I love, enjoy, and see,
When a faint chill steals o'er my heart,
A sweet voice utters—"Come to me!"
6. "Come, for all else must fail, and die;
Earth is no resting-place for thee;
Heavenward direct thy weeping eye;
I am thy Portion—"Come to me!"
7. O voice of mercy! voice of love!
In death's last fearful agony,
Support me—cheer me—from above!
And gently whisper—"Come to me!"

Lo! th'ange-lic host re-joices, Heav'n-ly hal-le-lu-jahs rise.

Chorus.

Hal-le-lu-jah, Hal-le-lu-jah to the Saviour's name.
Hal-le-lu-jah, hal-le-lu-jah to the Saviour's name.

Which they chant in hymns of joy:—
Glory in the highest, glory,
Glory be to God most high!

Reaching far as man is found;

Loud our golden harps shall sound.

Heaven and earth his praises sing;
O receive whom God appointed,
For your Prophet, Priest, and King.

ANDANTE.

1. WHEN Je - sus, my Sa - viour, first call'd me to go. And pub - lish sal - va - tion and peace; He told me if faith - ful while toil - ing be - low, His care for my soul should not cease.

2. With God and my Bible I parted from home,
And bade my dear kindred adieu;
O'er mountains and valleys a stranger to roam,
Where places and scenes were all new.
3. My path has been varied by pleasure and pain,
By friendship and hatred most keen;
But like the bright bow on the clouds after rain,
God's care o'er my pathway has been.
4. Deserted by friends and derided by foes,
Exhausted by toils and alarms,
My soul has been happy in constant repose,
Enfolded in Christ's loving arms.
5. In perils by land and in perils by sea,
In cruel reproaches and pain,
A pillar of cloud has my Lord been to me,
To shelter, refresh, and sustain.
6. But God has been with me my soul to sustain,
And bring me to glory and peace;
And soon in his kingdom a crown I shall gain,
And then shall my sorrows all cease.

TUNE.—“THE ITINERANT.”

1. O THOU, in whose presence my soul takes delight,
On whom in affliction I call,
My comfort by day, and my song 'n the night,
My hope, my salvation, my all.
2. Where dost thou at noontide resort with thy sheep,
To feed on the pastures of love?
For why in the valley of death should I weep,
Or alone in the wilderness rove?
3. O why should I wander an alien from thee,
And cry in the desert for bread?
Thy foes will rejoice, when my sorrows they see,
And smile at the tears I have shed.
4. This is my Beloved, his form is divine,
His vestments shed odours around;
The locks on his head are as grapes on the vine,
When autumn with plenty is crowned.
5. His lips as a fountain of righteousness flow,
That waters the garden of grace,
From which their salvation the Gentiles shall know,
And bask in the smiles of his face.
6. Love sits in his eyelids, and scatters delight
Through all the bright mansions on high:
Their faces the cherubim veil in his sight,
And tremble with fulness of joy.
7. He looks, and ten thousands of angels rejoice,
And myriads wait for the word;
He speaks, and eternity filled with his voice,
Re-echoes the praise of the Lord!

SAME TUNE.

1. LET others delight in the gambols of mirth,
In pleasures of riot and glee;
But among all the places frequented on earth,
The class-room is sweetest to me.
2. There kindred souls meet and converse as of old,
Their record on high is the same;
For the Lord looketh down and includes in his fold,
The faithful who think on his name.
3. There spirit meets spirit, and eye speaks to eye,
And cords of sweet sympathy bind;
And together they press to their home in the sky,
Forgetting the sorrows behind.
4. There hope plumes her wings and exultingly goes,
To bring, from the land of the blest,
Those sweet leaves from the tree that in Paradise grows,
To heal all the wounds of the breast.
5. Hope sings of a land where none ever shall die,
Where friendships shall never be riven,
Where the tears shall be wiped from each sorrowing eye,
And all shall be happy in heaven.

"The Sinner's Inbitation." 6s & 7s.

WORDS BY REV. C. B. DAVIDSON.

COPYRIGHT SECURED.

1. SIN-ner, come, will you go To the high-lands of hea-ven,
Where the storms ne-ver blow, And the long sum-mer's giv-en?

Where the bright bloom-ing flow'rs Are their o-dors e-mit-ting.

And the leaves of the bow'rs In the soft winds are fit-ting.

2. Where the saints robed in white,
Cleansed in life's flowing fountain,
Shining beauteous and bright
They inhabit the mountain,
Where no sin nor dismay,
Neither trouble nor sorrow,
Will be felt for a day.
Nor be feared for the morrow.
3. Where the rivers of joy
O'er the bright plains are flowing;
There our bliss ne'er shall cloy!
To that land we are going.
Then say, will you go,
And the world leave behind you?
Since its pleasures you know
Have but dazzled to blind you.

4. Will you go to that land
Where your friends wait to greet you?
There a beautiful band
Join with us to entreat you;
They are waiting above,
Waiting happy to hail you,
In those regions of love
Where no ills can assail you.
5. He's prepared thee a home,
Sinner, canst thou believe it?
And invites thee to come,
Sinner, wilt thou receive it?
O come, sinner, come,
For the tide is receding,
And the Saviour will soon
And forever cease pleading.

SINNER'S REPLY.—SAME TUNE.

1. I WILL go, I will go,
To that bright home in heaven,
Nor will tarry below,
Where true joy ne'er is given.
I will follow the just
In the highway and holy,
Taking God for my trust,
With the meek and the lowly.
2. I have wandered from light,
I have wandered in sorrow,
I have dreamed in the night
Of the joy of the morrow;
But the joy of the morn
Was still mingled with sadness,
And the evening's return
Brought no comfort or gladness.
3. I will bid earth adieu,
With its vain empty pleasures,
And my journey pursue
To a land of bright treasures;
I will sing of His love,
I will trust in His merit.
Who will call me above,
Endless joys to inherit.
4. Blessed Saviour on high!
Help a sinner to serve thee!
If salvation is nigh,
Oh, protect and preserve me!
And when devils assail,
Or the wicked allure me,
May thy strength still prevail,
And thy Spirit assure me.
5. Thus encompassed about
By His grace and His power,
I will triumph and shout
In the glad final hour!
I will sing of His grace
As I pass o'er the river,
And beholding his face
Shout His praises forever.—Rev. C. B. Davidson.

1. Ye an-gels who mortals at-tend, And min-is-ter com-fort in wo,

Come, lis-ten, ye hea-ven-ly friends, My hap-pi-er sto-ry to know :

I sing of a theme most su-blime, No sor-row my song can con-trol,

I sing of the rap-tur-ous time, When Je-sus spoke peace to my soul.

COPYRIGHT SECURED.

2. When guilt my poor heart did assail,
Because I had wandered from God,
I strove my sad case to bewail,
My sins were a cumbrous load.
O Saviour, have mercy, I cried!
Oh, pardon a wretch that's so foul!
Then quickly his blood was applied,
And Jesus spoke peace to my soul.
3. My guilt, like the cloud of the morn,
Was chased in a moment away;
The joy of my soul, newly born,
Increased like the dawning of day.

- My Saviour redeemed me from sin.
 He saves not in part but in whole;
 He writes his salvation within—
 For, oh! he spoke peace to my soul.
4. I now am so blessed with his love,
 I covet not earth's greatest store;
 He visits me oft from above—
 I have him. I want nothing more;
 Resigned to his pleasure I'd live,
 Till time's latest circle shall roll,
 His utmost salvation receive,
 For, oh! he spoke peace to my soul.
5. Nor Satan nor sin can dismay,
 No danger my soul can affright,
 While onward to mansions of day
 I go in Immanuel's might:
 Though earth in convulsions shall rend,
 From the centre quite through to each pole,
 I'll smile, for I'm sure of a friend,
 Since Jesus spoke peace to my soul.
6. Ye angels who wait while I sing,
 And patiently hear my glad song,
 Come, bear me to Jesus, my King,
 To join with the heavenly throng.
 'Tis there I'll eternally feast,
 On joys that enrapture the whole:
 All heaven would welcome the guest,
 Since Jesus spoke peace to my soul.
7. Farewell to earth's glittering toys,
 Farewell to my friends and my foes;
 I haste from these scenes to the skies,
 Where pleasure eternally flows:
 He bids me leave all for his sake—
 I'll run till I reach the blessed goal;
 Then me to his arms he will take,
 Oh! there he'll speak peace to my soul.

TUNE.—“CHRISTIAN EXPERIENCE.”

1. HOW tedious and tasteless the hours
 When Jesus no longer I see!
 Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flowers,
 Have all lost their sweetness to me;—
 The midsummer sun shines but dim.
 The fields strive in vain to look gay;
 But when I am happy in him,
 December's as pleasant as May.
2. His name yields the richest perfume,
 And sweeter than music his voice;
 His presence disperses my gloom.
 And makes all within me rejoice:
 I should, were he always thus nigh,
 Have nothing to wish or to fear;
 No mortal so happy as I.—
 My summer would last all the year.

1. BURST ye em'rald gates, and bring To my raptur'd vi-sion;
All th'ecs-ta-tic joys that spring, A-round the bright e-ly-sian.

Lo! we lift our long-ing eyes, Break ye in-ter-ven-ing skies;

Sun of right-eous-ness a-rise, Ope the gates of par-a-dise.

2. Floods of everlasting light,
Freely flash before him:
Myriads, with supreme delight,
Instantly adore him;
Angelic trumps resound his fame;
Lutes of lucid gold proclaim
All the music of his name;
Heaven echoing the theme.

3. Four and twenty elders rise
From their princely station;
Shout his glorious victories,
Sing the great salvation;

Cast their crowns before his throne,
 Cry in reverential tone,
 Glory be to God alone,
 Holy! holy! holy One!

4. Hark! the thrilling symphonies
 Seem, methinks, to seize us;
 Join we to the holy lays—
 Jesus—Jesus—Jesus!
 Sweetest sound in seraph's song,
 Sweetest note on mortal's tongue,
 Sweetest carol ever sung—
 Jesus—Jesus—flows along.

TUNE.—“BURST, YE EMERALD GATES.”

1. JESUS, lover of my soul,
 Let me to thy bosom fly,
 While the nearer waters roll,
 While the tempest still is high;
 Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
 Till the storm of life is past;
 Safe into the haven guide,
 O receive my soul at last.
2. Other refuge have I none;
 Hangs my helpless soul on thee:
 Leave, O leave me not alone;
 Still support and comfort me:
 All my trust on thee is stayed;
 All my help from thee I bring;
 Cover my defenceless head
 With the shadow of thy wing.
3. Thou, O Christ, art all I want:
 More than all in thee I find:
 Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
 Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
 Just and holy is thy name;
 I am all unrighteousness;
 False, and full of sin I am;
 Thou art full of truth and grace.
4. Plenteous grace with thee is found,—
 Grace to cover all my sin:
 Let the healing streams abound;
 Make and keep me pure within.
 Thou of life the fountain art;
 Freely let me take of thee:
 Spring thou up within my heart;
 Rise to all eternity.

"How swiftly the Years of our Pilgrimage Fly." P.M.

COPYRIGHT SECURED.

ARRANGED BY J. H. VON NARDROFF

1. How swift-ly the years of our pil-grim-age fly, As days, months, and years roll si-lent-ly by! Our days are soon num-ber'd, and Death sounds our knell; We scarce know our friends, till we bid them fare-well—Till we bid them fare-well!

2. The righteous and unrighteous all move along,
In crowds towards the grave, both the old and the young:
The good rise to heaven—the bad sink to hell;
They take on its verge an eternal farewell!
An eternal farewell!
3. O God! are mankind hastening on to the tomb?
Must hard-hearted sinners soon meet their sad doom?
Save, save, great Redeemer! O break the sad spell—
Forgive and prepare them to bid earth farewell!
To bid earth farewell!

4. To you, fellow-Christian, I turn with delight;
The grave cannot harm you—your prospects are bright:
Be faithful and humble, temptations repel,
You'll soon leave the world with a cheerful farewell—
With a cheerful farewell!
5. We've met here with joy, but, alas! cannot stay—
Stern time bids us part, and we all must away
To life's busy duties—to buy and to sell;
But, oh, in yon heaven there's no parting farewell!
There's no parting farewell!
6. Farewell, then, my brother! in body we part,
But one common Saviour unites us in heart;
Through his grace we'll conquer the world, flesh, and hell,
And then bid this earth a triumphant farewell!
A triumphant farewell!
7. Farewell to its pains! farewell to its cares,
Its thousand misfortunes, temptations, and snares!
We'll mount on faith's pinions with angels to dwell,
Where saints never hear the sad parting farewell!
The sad parting farewell!
8. Farewell, trembling sinner, I'm free from your blood;
My message delivered, I leave you with God;
I've begged and entreated, but dare not compel,
Till the great judgment day I now bid you farewell!
I now bid you farewell!—Rev. Dr. A. Means.

1. He dies! the Friend of sin-ners, dies! He died for me!

Lo! Sa-lem's daughters weep a-round, He died for me!

Chorus.

Come to Cal-va-ry, come to Cal-va-ry, And see the Sa-voir die!

- A solemn darkness veils the skies,—He died for me!
 A sudden trembling shakes the ground;—He died for me!
Chorus.—Come to Calvary, come to Calvary, &c.
 Come, saints, and drop a tear or two—He died for me!
 For him who groaned beneath your load;—He died for me!
Chorus.—Come to Calvary, come to Calvary, &c.
 He sheds a thousand drops for you—He died for me!
 A thousand drops of richer blood.—He died for me!
Chorus.—Come to Calvary, come to Calvary, &c.
2. Here's love and grief beyond degree:—He died for me!
 The Lord of glory dies for man!—He died for me!
Chorus.—Come to Calvary, come to Calvary, &c.
 But lo! what sudden joy we see:—He died for me!
 Jesus, the dead, revives again.—He died for me!
Chorus.—Come to Calvary, come to Calvary, &c.
 The rising God forsakes the tomb:—He died for me!
 (In vain the tomb forbids his rise;)—He died for me!
Chorus.—Come to Calvary, come to Calvary, &c.
 Cherubic legions guard him home.—He died for me!
 And shout him welcome to the skies.—He died for me!
Chorus.—Come to Calvary, come to Calvary, &c.

1. JE-sus, the sin-ner's friend, to thee, Lost and undone, for aid I flee;

Wea - ry of earth, my - self, and sin : O - pen thine arms and take me in, O - pen thine arms and take me in.

2. Pity and heal my sin-sick soul ;
 'Tis thou alone canst make me whole ;
 Dark, till in me thine image shine,
 And lost I am, till thou art mine,
 And lost I am, till thou art mine.
3. At last I own it cannot be
 That I should fit myself for thee :
 Here, then, to thee I all resign ;
 Thine is the work, and only thine,
 Thine is the work, and only thine.
4. What shall I say thy grace to move ?
 Lord, I am sin,—but thou art love :
 I give up every plea beside.—
 Lord, I am lost—but thou hast died,
 Lord, I am lost—but thou hast died.

The tempter cries, I ne'er shall stand,

Chorus.—But Jesus, Jesus is my friend, &c.

4. Through glimmering hopes and gloomy fears,
Dimly the heavenly way appears;
But in this way methinks I see
The track of him that died for me.
Chorus.—But Jesus, Jesus is my friend, &c.
5. I trace the footsteps of my God,
Who on the cross sustained my load;
'Twas on that dark and doleful day,
In streaming blood he passed this way.
Chorus.—But Jesus, Jesus is my friend, &c.
6. Come life, come death, come then what will,
His footsteps I will follow still;
Through dangers thick and hell's alarms,
I shall be safe in his dear arms.
Chorus.—But Jesus, Jesus is my friend, &c.
7. Then, O my soul, arise and sing;
Behold thy Saviour, Friend, and King!
With pleasing smiles he now looks down,
And cries, "Press on, and take the crown." (Chorus.)
8. "Prove faithful, then, a few more days;
Fight the good fight, and win the race;
And then thy soul with me shall reign,
Thy head a crown of glory gain." (Chorus.)

Till the last trumpet's joyful sound;
Then burst the tomb with sweet surprise,
And in my Saviour's image rise. (Chorus.)

Earth-ly friends may fail and leave us, This day kind, to - mor - row grieve us ;

But this Friend will ne'er de-ceive us, Oh, how he loves!

2. Blessed Jesus! would'st thou know him?
Oh, how he loves!
Give thyself e'en this day to him,
Oh, how he loves!
Is it sin that pains and grieves thee?
Unbelief and trials tease thee?
Jesus can from all release thee?
Oh, how he loves!
3. Love this friend who longs to save thee,
Oh, how he loves!
Dost thou love? He will not leave thee,
Oh, how he loves!
Think no more then of to-morrow,
Take his easy yoke and follow,
Jesus carries all thy sorrow,
Oh, how he loves!
4. All thy sins shall be forgiven,
Oh, how he loves!
Backward all thy foes be driven,
Oh, how he loves!

Best of blessings he'll provide thee,
Naught but good shall e'er betide thee,
Safe to glory he will guide thee;
Oh, how he loves!

5. Pause, my soul! adore and wonder,
Oh, how he loves!
Naught can cleave this love asunder,
Oh, how he loves!
Neither trial, nor temptation,
Doubt, nor fear, nor tribulation,
Can bereave us of salvation;
Oh, how he loves!

6. Let us still this love be viewing,
Oh, how he loves!
And though faint, keep on pursuing,

He will strengthen each endeavour,
And when passed o'er Jordan's river,

When Jesus will summon me home.
Chorus.—Then I'll sing, &c.

3. Then I'll wait till the Saviour shall call me,
 Nor murmur though long he delay;
 For no danger can ever appal me,
 While he is my comfort and stay.
 He will come to receive me to glory,
 With himself he will take me to rest;
 Then I'll chant evermore the glad story,
 And join in the song of the blest.

TUNE.—“THOUGH THE PLEASURES OF EARTH BE FLEETING.”

1. HOW tedious and tasteless the hours,
 When Jesus no longer I see!
 Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flowers,
 Have all lost their sweetness to me;—
 The midsummer sun shines but dim,
 The fields strive in vain to look gay;
 But when I am happy in Him,
 December's as pleasant as May.
2. His name yields the richest perfume,
 And sweeter than music his voice;
 His presence disperses my gloom,
 And makes all within me rejoice;
 I should, were he always thus nigh,
 Have nothing to wish or to fear;
 No mortal so happy as I,—
 My summer would last all the year.
3. Content with beholding his face,
 My all to his pleasure resigned,
 No changes of season or place
 Would make any change in my mind;
 While blest with a sense of his love,
 A palace a toy would appear;
 And prisons would palaces prove,
 If Jesus would dwell with me there.
4. My Lord, if indeed I am thine,
 If thou art my sun and my song,
 Say, why do I languish and pine?
 And why are my winters so long?
 O drive these dark clouds from my sky:
 Thy soul-cheering presence restore;
 Or take me to thee up on high,
 Where winter and clouds are no more.

"Beautiful World!" P. M.

COMPOSED BY JOSEPH KENNEDY.

MODERATO.

1. WE'RE go-ing home, we've had visions bright, Of that holy land, that world of light ; Where the long dark night of time is past, And the morn of eternity dawns at last ; Where the weary saint no more shall roam, But dwell in a happy, peaceful home ; Where the brow with sparkling gems is crown'd,

And the waves of bliss are flowing around. O that beautiful world ! O that beautiful, beautiful world !

Ad LIB. Rrr.

2. We're going home, we soon shall be
Where the sky is clear and all are free,
Where the victor's song floats o'er the plain,
And the seraph's anthems blend with its strain;
Where the sun rolls down its brilliant flood,
And beams on a world that is fair and good;
Where the stars, once dimmed at nature's doom,
Will ever shine o'er the new earth's bloom;
O that beautiful world! O that beautiful, beautiful world!
3. Where the tears and sighs which here were given,
Are exchanged for the gladsome song of heaven;
Where the beauteous forms which sing and shine,
Are guarded well by a band divine;
Where the banner of love, and friendship's wand,
Are waving above that princely band;
And the glory of God like a boundless sea,
Will cheer that immortal company;
O that beautiful world! O that beautiful, beautiful world!
4. 'Mid the ransomed throng, 'mid the sea of bliss,
'Mid the holy city's gorgeousness;
'Mid the verdant plains, 'mid angels' cheer,
'Mid the saints that round the throne appear,
Where the conqueror's song as it sounds afar,
Is wafted on the ambrosial air;
Through endless years we then shall prove,
The depth of a Saviour's matchless love,
O that beautiful world! O that beautiful, beautiful world!

1. A PIL - GRIM in this desert world, 'Mid snares and dangers dread, I look up - on the drea - ry way, As life's rough path I tread ;

And sigh to feel my ex - ile state, And weep that here I roam, In a dark and fear - ful wil - der - ness, A - way from my sweet home.

2. But oft amid the darkness gleams
 A bright and cheering ray,
 And sheds a heavenly radiance
 O'er all the gloomy way ;
 Then I lift up my drooping head,
 To see whence it doth come,
 And lo! I find that radiant beam
 Shines from my own sweet home.
3. Then how my heart with rapture thrills
 To find I'm almost there,
 To feel my weary fainting frame
 Fanned by its balmy air !

And thence how quickened are my steps,
To reach that peaceful dome,
Where centre all my dearest hopes,
My glorious heavenly home!

4. Onward I haste with steadfast aim,
With eager, longing gaze;
Nor heed my sufferings as I pass
Along the thorny maze;
Though threatening clouds often arise,
And furious tempests come,
I travel on in joyful hope,
Of my blest heavenly home.
5. O blissful thought! when I shall leave
This world of sin and wo,
I leave my sorrows all behind,
My sufferings here below;
O heaven! bright land of cloudless day,
There earth's woes ne'er can come;
Its pains, its toils, its strife and sin,
Will not reach my sweet home.
6. There all is peace and holy love.
There health and bliss abound,
There rapturous scenes, unfalling sweets,
And priceless gems are found;
Oh! richer and more beauteous far
Than costliest earthly dome,
Is my bright mansion in that world,
My happy, heavenly home.

ARRANGED BY J. H. VON NARDROFF.

1. A HOPE of heav'n, a precious treasure, The richest boon that man can crave; }
For it af-fords unfading pleasure, A hope of heav'n beyond the grave: }

This hope has been my stay and comfort Thro' many a dark and gloomy hour; Of it the world can never rob me, Long as I trust Almighty power.

2. When sorrow, death, and wo surround me,
And all about me's filled with gloom,
My mind is peaceful, calm, and even—
I have a hope beyond the tomb;
Strong ties by death long since were riven,
And those I loved I see no more,
Nor will until we meet in heaven—
There we shall meet to part no more.
3. When friends are few, and the world alluring,
And through temptation I'm cast down,
My way is dark and nothing cheering,
A hope of heaven still cheers me on.
Though prospects fade and friends should fail me,
And all seems cheerless on the road,
And though the powers of hell assail me,
I'll hope for heaven and trust in God.
4. And when I pass through death's dark valley,
A light shall shine around my way—
His rod and staff shall then support me,
He'll bring me through to endless day.
Until that hour still let me cherish
A hope of heaven and its joy,
Well-grounded on my Saviour's merits,
Whose praises shall my tongue employ.

"A Home in Heaven." P. M.

WORDS BY WM. HUNTER.
MODERATO.

ARRANGED BY W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. A HOME in heav'n! what a joy-ful thought, As the poor man toils in his wea-ry lot, His heart oppress'd and with an-guish driv'n, From his home be-low to his home in heav'n, From his home below to his home in heav'n.

2. A home in heaven! as the sufferer lies
On his bed of pain, and uplifts his eyes
To that bright home, what a joy is given,
With the blessed thought of his home in heaven.
3. A home in heaven! when our pleasures fade,
And our wealth and fame in the dust are laid;
And strength decays, and our health is riven,
We are happy still with our home in heaven.
4. A home in heaven! when the faint heart bleeds,
By the Spirit's stroke for its evil deeds;
Oh! then what bliss in that heart forgiven,
Does the hope inspire of a home in heaven.

5. A home in heaven! when our friends are fled
To the cheerless gloom of the mouldering dead,
We wait in hope on the promise given;
We will meet up there in our home in heaven.
6. A home in heaven! when the wheel is broke,
And the golden bowl, by the terror-stroke;
When life's bright sun sinks in death's dark even,
We will then fly up to our home in heaven.
7. Our home in heaven! oh, the glorious home,
And the Spirit joined with the bride says "Come!"
Come, seek his face, and your sins forgiven,
And rejoice in hope of your home in heaven.

"Happy Day." L. M.

1. O HAPPY day! that fix'd my choice On thee my Sa-viour and my God ;
Well may this glowing heart rejoice, And tell its rap-tures all a-broad.

Chorus.

Hap - py day, hap - py day, When Jesus wash'd my sins a - way!

He taught me how to watch and pray, And live rejoic - ing ev'-ry day.

Hap - py day, hap - py day, When Je-sus wash'd my sins a - way!

2. O happy bond! that seals my vows
To Him who merits all my love ;
Let cheerful anthems fill his house,
While to that sacred shrine I move.
Chorus.—Happy day, happy day, &c.
3. 'Tis done, the great transaction's done ;
I am my Lord's, and he is mine ;
He drew me, and I followed on,
Charmed to confess the voice divine.
Chorus.—Happy day, happy day, &c.

4. Now rest, my long-divided heart;
 Fixed on this blissful centre, rest;
 Nor ever from thy Lord depart:
 With him of every good possessed.
Chorus.—Happy day, happy day, &c.

5. High heaven, that heard the solemn vow,
 That vow renewed shall daily hear,
 Till in life's latest hour I bow,
 And bless in death a bond so dear.
Chorus.—Happy day, happy day, &c.

"The Christian's Robe." C. M. Double.

COPYRIGHT SECURED.

ARRANGED BY J. H. VON NARDROFF.

1. DRESS'D u - ni - form Christ's soldiers are, When du - ty calls a - broad; Not purchased by their cost and care, But by their Prince bestow'd. Christ's soldiers, too, have Christ-like bread, And re - gi - men - tal dress; 'Tis heav'nly white and mix'd with red, 'Tis Christ our right-eous-ness.

2. A rich and costly robe it is,
 And to the soldier dear;
 No rose can learn to blush like this,
 No lily look so fair.
 'Tis wrought by Jesus' skillful hand,
 And stained with his own blood,
 Which makes the angels gazing stand
 To view this robe of God.
3. No art of man can weave this robe,
 'Tis of such texture fine,
 Nor could the wealth of all the globe
 By purchase make it mine;

'Tis of one piece, and wove throughout
So curiously, that none
Can dress up in this uniform,
Till Jesus puts it on.

4. This vesture never waxes old,
Nor spot thereon can fall;
It makes the soldier brisk and bold,
And dutiful withal.
This robe put on me, Lord, each day,
And it shall hide my shame;
'Twill make me shout, and sing, and pray,
And bless my Captain's name.
5. How brisk and bold Christ's soldiers are,
When dressed up in this robe!
They look like men equipped for war,
And like the sons of God.
Their shield is faith—their helmet, hope,
And thus they march Christ's road;
Christ's spirit is their glittering sword
To fight the war for God.
6. When dressed up in this uniform,
In order march along;
Christ Jesus is their leader now,
And conscience beats the drum.
The trumpet sounds, at God's command,
A long and joyful sound;
Christ's soldiers shout, and praise their King,
And the walls come tumbling down.

“There you'll sing Hallelujah.” C. M.

THERE is a land of pure de-light, Where saints immor-tal reign;
Chorus.—There you'll sing hal - le - lu - jah, And I'll sing hal-le-lu - - - jah,

In-fi - nite day ex-cludes the night, And pleasures banish pain.
And we'll all sing hal - le - lu - jah, In that sweet world a-bove.

Can injure the dwellers in that holy grove;
No wickedness there—not a shade of transgression:

The heirs of His glory whose nature is love;
Nor sickness can reach them—that country is healthy:
Oh, say, will you go to the Eden above?
Chorus.—Will you go? will you go? &c.

Ere from this clay house he is summoned to move;
Its gates and its towers with glory are burnished;

Chorus.—We will go! we will go! &c.
Oh, yes, we will go to the Eden above!

MUSIC BY B. R. HANBY.
Arranged by W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. In this low dark val-ley, where so ma-ny sorrows grow, I have spent ma-ny gloomy hours in pain; In weeping, praying, seeking my Redeem-er's love to know, But fail'd peace or par-don to ob - tain.

Chorus.

O my Sa - viour and Lord, they have tak-en thee a - way, And I fear I'll ne-ver see thee a - ny more; I'm gloo-my and I'm weary, as I

2. When the moon's in her zenith, and the stars are shining bright,
Then I wander in fields and humbly pray;
The chilling, moaning night winds bear away, on pinions light,
My sighs and my prayers till dawn of day.

Chorus.—O my Saviour and Lord, &c.

3. When the Sabbath-day has come, I go to church to hear
If there's mercy for such a wretch as I;
I listen while I'm sitting, and I give myself to prayer,
But oh! there's no pity ever nigh.

Chorus.—O my Saviour and Lord, &c.

4. It is evening, and the people meet for prayer again,
I will go, humbly kneeling as before:
The Saviour's word is faithful, and, though there I may be slain,
If lost yet his favor I'll implore.

Chorus.—O my Saviour and Lord, &c.

5. Oh my soul's full of sorrow!—but the light begins to dawn,
And I see men as trees in motion near—
I'm believing and I'm feeling that Jesus is my own,
And I'm his, for I know he heareth prayer.

Chorus.—O my Saviour and Lord, thou hast taken sin away,
And I'll never wander from thee any more;
I'm drinking consolation with each bright and passing day,
And with rapture my Saviour I adore.

6. My vision now is failing, and my strength's declining too,
Hark! hark! there's a strange knocking at the door!
I hear the angels calling! I must bid my friends adieu,
I'm going home to live forever more!

Chorus.—O my Saviour and Lord, up in glory far away,
We'll be happy in thy presence evermore;
There is no night in heaven, but an endless happy day,
And there will we love thee and adore.

Which flames devour, or waves o'erflow;
Be mine a happier lot to own

 The sky consumed, the planets fall,
 Convulsions rock this earthly ball,
 There's nothing firm but heaven.

4. This world with all its wealth is poor,

 Its lofty domes and brilliant ore,
 Its gems and crowns are vain and poor,
 There's nothing rich but heaven.

From place to place I'm driven;
My friends are gone, and I'm in gloom;
This earth is lonely as a tomb,
I have no home but heaven.

My sins are all forgiven;
Triumphant grace has quelled my fears;

ARRANGED BY W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. COME saints and sinners, hear me tell The wonders of Im-man-u-el, Who saved me from a burn-ing bell, And brought my soul with him to dwell, And gave me heav'n-ly u-nion, And gave me heav'n-ly u-nion.

2. When Jesus saw me from on high,
Beheld my soul in ruin lie.
He looked on me with pitying eye,
And said to me, as he passed by,
"With God you have no union."
3. Then I began to weep and cry,
And looked this way and that, to fly,
It grieved me so that I must die;
I strove salvation for to buy;
But still I had no union.
4. But when I hated all my sin,
My dear Redeemer took me in,
And with his blood he washed me clean;
And oh! what seasons I have seen
Since first I felt this union!
5. I praised the Lord both night and day,
And went from house to house to pray,
And if I met one on the way,
I found I'd something still to say
About this heavenly union.

is a calm a sure retreat, 'Tis found be-neath the Mer-cy Seat.

2. There is a place where Jesus sheds The oil of gladness on our heads;

A place than all be-sides more sweet, It is the blood-bought Mercy Seat.

3. There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend,
Though sundered far—by faith they meet,
Around one common Mercy Seat.

4. Ah! whither could we flee for aid,
When tempted, desolate, dismayed—
Or how the host of hell defeat,
Had suffering saints no Mercy Seat?

5. There—there on eagle wing we soar,
And sin and sense seem all no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the Mercy Seat.

6. Oh, let my hand forget her skill.
My tongue be silent, cold, and still,
This bounding heart forget to beat,
If I forget the Mercy Seat.

MELODY BY S. LOVER, ESQ.
ARRANGED BY W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. THOUGH troubles as - sail and dangers affright; Tho' friends should all fail, And foes all u - nite, Yet one thing se - cures us what-ev - er be - tide, The pro - mise as - sures us, — The Lord will provide.

2. The birds, without barn or storehouse, are fed;
From them let us learn to trust for our bread;
His saints what is fitting shall ne'er be denied,
So long as 'tis written,—The Lord will provide.
3. When Satan appears to stop up our path,
And fills us with fears, we triumph by faith;
He cannot take from us (though oft he has tried)
The heart-cheering promise,—The Lord will provide.
4. He tells us we're weak,—our hope is in vain;
The good that we seek we ne'er shall obtain;
But when such suggestions our graces have tried,
This answers all questions,—The Lord will provide.
5. No strength of our own, nor goodness we claim:
Our trust is all thrown on Jesus's Name;
In this our strong tower for safety we hide;
The Lord is our power,—The Lord will provide.
6. When life sinks apace, and death is in view,
The word of his grace shall comfort us through:
Not fearing or doubting, with Christ on our side,
We hope to die shouting,—The Lord will provide.

“Oh! here I'm Sad and Weary.” P. M.

WORDS BY REV. W. KENNEY.

MUSIC BY S. C. FOSTER.

1. Oh! here I'm sad and weary — far, far from home, My path is lone and drea-ry — a pilgrim here I roam; But 'tis my Saviour calls—and it makes my heart re-joice, As I catch the soft-est whis-per of that

dear fa-mi-liar voice; Breathing music on my ear—sounding sweetly thro' the gloom, Oh! it bids the wea-ry pil-grim — welcome, welcome home.

2. Oh! how I long to greet them—the friends gone before;
 Soon, soon I'll go to meet them on Canaan's happy shore;
 They watch me as I come, and I hear their blissful song,
 As they in thrilling numbers still the joyous notes prolong;—
 Making music to my ear, sounding sweetly through the gloom,—
 Oh! they bid the weary pilgrim—welcome, welcome home.
3. What though the days be dreary, and long be my stay,—
 Though still my soul be weary, and pant to soar away;
 I wait my Saviour's call, for it soon will greet my ear,
 Then I'll join my friends and kindred, who no longer suffer here;
 For I hear their joyous song sounding sweetly through the gloom,—
 Oh! it bids the weary pilgrim—welcome, welcome home.

2. There the patriarchs all,
 And prophets great and small,
 In one company join, singing praises divine,
 To the Lamb that was slain,
 But from death rose again,
 And ascended to heaven in triumph to reign.
Chorus.—Hallelujah to Jesus, again and again, &c.

3. The apostolic band,
 With their uplifted hands,
 Give to Jesus the praise, salvation by grace;
 While the martyrs that bled,
 Shall have crowns on their heads,
 And from glory to glory, by Jesus be led.
Chorus.—Hallelujah to Jesus, again and again, &c.

4. There a Wesley doth stand,
 In the midst of his band,
 With his bright shining face, praising God for free grace,
 While a Fletcher unites
 With the old Israelites,
 Giving glory to Jesus in rapturous delight.
Chorus.—Hallelujah to Jesus, again and again, &c.

 Saints and angels unite,
 And in ecstasy gaze on the Ancient of Days;

 All their voices they raise,
 And all heaven is filled with Immanuel's praise.
Chorus.—Hallelujah to Jesus, again and again, &c.

1. How hap-py ev'-ry child of grace, Who knows his sins for-given!

This earth, he cries, is not my place, I seek my place in

While here on earth we stay;
We more than taste the heavenly powers,
And antedate that day.

Our life in Christ concealed,—

Our earthen vessels filled.

"There is a Land of Pleasure." P. M.

1. THERE is a land of pleasure, Where streams of joy for - ev - er roll;

'Tis there I have my trea - sure, And there I hope to land my soul:
D.C. But since my Saviour found me, A light has shone a - long my way.

Long darkness dwelt a-round me, With scarcely once a cheer-ing ray;
D.C.

2. I'm on my way to Canaan,
Still guided by my Saviour's hand;
Oh, come along, poor sinner,
And see Immanuel's happy land!
To all that stay behind me,
I bid a long, a last farewell!
Oh come, or you'll repent it
When you shall reach the gates of hell!

3. The vale of tears surrounds me,
And Jordan's current rolls before:
Oh, how I stand and tremble,
To hear the dismal waters roar!
Whose hand shall then support me,
And keep my soul from sinking there;
From sinking down to darkness,
The doleful regions of despair?

4. The waves shall not affright me,
Although they're deeper than the grave,
If Jesus will stand by me,
I'll calmly ride on Jordan's wave.
His word hath cheered the ocean,
His lamp hath calmed the gloomy vale;
Oh, may this friend be with me,
When through the gates of death I sail!
5. Then come, thou king of terrors,
And with thy weapons lay me low!
I soon shall reach that region
Where everlasting pleasures flow.
Now, Christians, I must leave you,
A few more days to suffer here;
Through grace I soon shall meet you:
My soul exults—I'm almost there.
6. Soon the archangel's trumpet
Shall shake the globe from pole to pole,
And all the wheels of nature
Shall in a moment cease to roll:
Then shall I see my Saviour,
With shining ranks of angels, come
To execute his vengeance,
And take his ransomed people home.

"The Son of Man they Did Betray." P. M.

AS SUNG BY REV. T. W. MACLARY;
Arranged by W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

COPYRIGHT SECURED.

I. THE SON of Man they did betray, He was condemn'd and led a-way.

Think, O my soul, on that dread day: Look on Mount Cal-va - ry.

Be - hold him, lamb-like, led along, Surrounded by a wicked throng, Accused by each lying tongue, And then the Lamb of God they hung,

Upon the shameful tree.

2. 'Twas thus the glorious sufferer stood,
With hands and feet nailed to the wood;
From every wound a stream of blood
Came flowing down amain.
His bitter groans all nature shook,
And at his voice the rocks were broke,
The sleeping saints their graves forsook,
While spiteful Jews around them mocked,
And scoffed at his pain.

3. Now hung beneath the earth and skies,
Behold! in agony he dies!
O sinners, hear his mournful cries,
Come see his torturing pain.
The mourning sun withdrew his light,
Blushed and refused to view the sight:
The azure clothed in robes of night,
All nature mourned and stood affright,
When Christ the Lord was slain.
4. Hark! men and angels, hear the Son!
He cries for help, but oh! there's none,
He treads the wine press all alone;
His garments stained with blood.
In lamentations hear him cry:
"Eloi, lama sabacthani!"
Though death may close his languid eye,
He soon will mount the upper sky,
The conquering Son of God.
5. The Jews and Romans in a band,
With hearts like steel around him stand,
And mocking say, "Come save the land,
Come try yourself to free."
A soldier pierced him when he died;
Then healing streams came from his side;
And thus my Lord was crucified;
Stern justice then was satisfied,
Sinners, for you and me.
6. Behold! he mounts the throne of state,
He fills the mediatorial seat,
While millions bowing at his feet,
With loud hosannas tell:
Though he endured exquisite pains,
He led the monster death in chains;
Ye seraphs raise your highest strains;
With music fill bright Eden's plains;
He conquered death and hell.
7. 'Tis done! the dreadful debt is paid,
The great atonement now is made;
Sinners, on him your guilt was laid,
For you he spilt his blood:
For you his tender soul did move,
For you he left the courts above,
That you the length and breadth might prove,
And height and depth of perfect love,
In Christ your smiling God.
8. All glory be to God on high,
Who reigns enthroned above the sky,
Who sent his Son to bleed and die,
Glory to him be given;
While heaven above his praise resounds,
O Zion sing—his grace abounds,
In hopes to shout eternal rounds,
In flaming love that knows no bounds,
When swallowed up in heaven.

2. Let those refuse to sing
Who never knew our God,
But servants of the heavenly King

3. The God that rules on high,
That all the earth surveys,
That rides upon the stormy sky,
And calms the roaring seas;
4. This awful God is ours,
Our Father and our Love;
He will send down his heavenly powers,
To carry us above.
5. There we shall see his face,
And never, never sin;
There, from the rivers of his grace,
Drink endless pleasures in.
6. Yea, and before we rise
To that immortal state,
The thoughts of such amazing bliss
Should constant joys create.
7. The men of grace have found
Glory begun below;
Celestial fruit on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow.
8. "The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets,
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets."
9. Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching through Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high.

 That we may shout as we sing and pray:
 With all the saints that have gone home,
 With all the saints that have gone home,
 Unite to sing redeeming love,
 With all the saints that have gone home,
 Shout! shout! shout! to sing hallelujahs round the throne.

Arranged by W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. Ye wea-ry, hea-vy la-den souls, Who are op-press-ed sore;

Ye trav'lers thro' this wil-der-ness, To Canaan's peace-ful shore;

Through chilling winds and beating rains, The wa-ters deep and cold,

And en-e-mies surrounding you, Take cour-age and be bold.

2. Though storms and hurricanes arise,
The desert all around,
And fiery serpents oft appear,
Through the enchanted ground;
Dark nights, and clouds, and gloomy fears,
And dragons often roar;
But while the gospel trump we hear,
We'll press for Canaan's shore.

3. We're often like the lonesome dove,
Who mourns her absent mate,
From hill to hill, from vale to vale,
Her sorrows to relate.
But Canaan's land is just before,
Sweet spring is coming on ;
A few more beating winds and rains,
And winter will be gone.

4. Sometimes, like mountains to the sky,
Black Jordan's billows roar ;
Which often makes the pilgrims fear
They never will get o'er.
But when we gain Mount Pisgah's top,
And view the vernal plain ;
To fright our souls, may Jordan roar,
And hell may rage in vain.

5. By faith I now already see
The borders of that land !
The trees of life, with heavenly fruit,
In beauteous order stand.
The wintery time will soon be gone,
Sweet flowers will appear ;
The fiftieth year is rolling around,
The great Sabbatic year.

6. Oh ! what a glorious sight appears
To my believing eyes !
Methinks I see Jerusalem,
A city in the skies !
Oh ! that my faith were strong to rise
And bear my soul away ;
I'd shout salvation to the Lamb,
In one eternal day.

7. By faith, my gracious God, I see,
On his eternal throne ;
At his right hand the loving Lamb,
And Spirit, three in One ;
The angels whisper me away,
Saying, " My brother, come,"
And I am willing to be gone
To my eternal home.

8. Farewell ! my brethren in the Lord,
Who are to Canaan bound ;
And should we never meet again
Till Gabriel's trump shall sound,
I hope that I shall meet you there,
On that delightful shore,
In oceans of eternal bliss,
Where parting is no more.

No more I'll languish, shedding no tear,
Weeping! no, never! the crown will be given,
Forever and ever be happy in heaven.

There we'll praise redeeming love,
More than angels' joy we'll prove,

"Come to the Saviour." 11s & 8s.

WORDS BY REV. W. KENNEY.
COPYRIGHT SECURED.MELODY BY I. B. WOODBURY.
Arranged by W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. I LOVE thee, my Saviour, for thou from above Didst stoop to redeem me from sin ;

Thy heart ever tender—thy bosom of love, Was o-pen'd to welcome me in.
D.C. Thy soul bow'd with sorrow and agony there, In shame thou didst suffer for me.

Oh! how should I love thee! who freely didst bear, My burden of guilt on the tree ;

2. I love thee, my Saviour, for when sore distressed,
My spirit no refuge could find ;
Thou calledst the weary, and gavest me rest,
Thine ear to my prayer was inclined ;
And when in my sorrow I fled to thy side,
Thy promise was sweet to my ear,
It whispered of Jesus, who for me had died,
And soothed all my anguish and fear.

3. I love thee, my Saviour, for thou as a friend,
Hast aided when danger was near ;
And still in my weakness, thine arm will defend,
Thy presence dispel all my fear ;
And when the fierce tempest sweeps by on life's shore,
And clouds have come over my sky,
I'll bask in the sunshine of peace evermore,
For Jesus, my refuge, is nigh.

4. I love thee, my Saviour, to thee will I cling,
 When life's fleeting joys are all past;
 The swellings of Jordan no terror can bring,
 For thou wilt be mine to the last;
 And when the glad morning shall dawn on the grave,
 And saints in thine image shall shine,
 I'll sing of thy power, almighty to save,
 And safe on thy bosom recline.

5. Then let all hearts love thee, let all give thee praise,
 To thee let the glory be given;
 Till all voices blending, the echo shall raise,
 And earth blend its anthem with heaven.
 Then joining the chorus to God and the Lamb,
 With angels I'll love and adore;
 And vie with the seraphs in praise to thy name,
 Where love is the theme evermore.

What did thine on - ly Son en-dure, Be-fore I drew my breath!

2. O Jesus, could I this believe,

 And all my wants thou wouldst relieve
 In this accepted hour.
 Author of faith! to thee I lift
 My weary, longing eyes;
 Oh! let me now receive that gift—

Boys.—I. WHITHER, pilgrims, are you go - ing, Each with staff in hand?

Girls.

Girls.—We are go - ing on a jour - ney, At the king's command;

Chorus.

O-ver plains, and hills, and valleys, We are go - ing to his palace,

We are go - ing to his pa - lace, In the bet - ter land.

2. Fear ye not the way so lonely,
 You, a feeble band?
 No, for friends unseen are near us,
 Angels round us stand;

Chorus.—Christ our leader walks beside us,
 He will guard, and he will guide us,
 He will guard, and he will guide us,
 To the better land.

3. Tell me, pilgrims, what you hope for
In the better land?
Spotless robes and crowns of glory,
From a Saviour's hand.

Chorus.—We shall drink of life's clear river,
We shall dwell with God forever,
We shall dwell with God forever,
In the better land.

4. Will you let me travel with you
To the better land?
Come away, we bid you welcome,
To our little band.

Chorus.—Come, oh, come! we cannot leave you,
Christ is waiting to receive you,
Christ is waiting to receive you,
In the better land.

"I Love Thee, my Lord." P. M.

1. I love thee, I love thee, I love thee, my Lord, I love thee, my

Saviour, I love thee, my God, I love thee, I love thee, And that thou dost know, But how much I love thee, I never can show.

2. I'm happy, I'm happy, O wondrous account!
My joys are immortal, I stand on the mount!
I gaze on my treasure, and long to be there,
With Jesus and angels, my kindred so dear.
3. O Jesus, my Saviour, with thee I am blest!
My life and salvation, my joy and my rest!
Thy name be my theme, and thy love be my song,
Thy grace shall inspire both my heart and my tongue.
4. Oh! who's like my Saviour? He's Salem's bright King,
He smiles, and he loves me, and learns me to sing;
I'll praise him, I'll praise him, with notes loud and shrill,
While rivers of pleasure my spirit do fill.

"And must I Bear the Cross Alone." P. M.

COPYRIGHT SECURED.

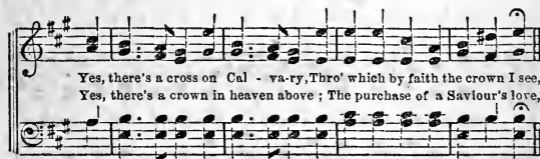

COMPOSED BY JOSIAH LOWE.

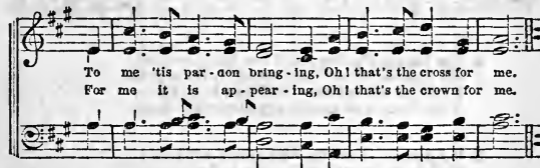

1. AND must I bear the cross a - lone, And all the world go free?
2. We'll bear the con - se - crat - ed cross, Till from the cross we're free,

No! there's a cross for ev' - ry one, And there's a cross for me.
And then go up to wear a crown, For there's a crown for me;

Yes, there's a cross on Cal - va - ry, Thro' which by faith the crown I see,
Yes, there's a crown in heaven above; The purchase of a Saviour's love,

To me 'tis par - don bring - ing, Oh! that's the cross for me.
For me it is ap - pear - ing, Oh! that's the crown for me.

3. This world, with all its fleeting show,
Is not the world for me;
'Tis mixed with many tears I know,
And scenes of misery;
But there's a world so pure and fair;
And none but saints can enter there,
From sin and sorrow free,
Oh! that's the world for me.

"The Pearl." P. M.

1. THE road that ma - ny tra - vel, is not the road for me;

It leads to death and sor - row, In it I would not be.

But there's a road that leads to God, It's mark'd by Christ's most precious blood, that's the road for me, Oh ! that's the road for me.

The pas - sage here is free, Oh ! that's the road for me, Oh !

2. The pearl that worldlings covet
Is not the pearl for me;
Its beauty fades as quickly,
As sunshine on the sea.
But there's a pearl sought by the wise,
It's called the pearl of greatest price,
Though few its value see.
Oh! that's the pearl for me, &c.
3. The hope that sinners cherish,
Is not the hope for me;
Most surely will they perish,
Unless from sin made free.
But there's a hope that's fixed in God,
It leads the soul to keep his word,
And sinful pleasures flee.
Oh! that's the hope for me, &c.
4. The crown that decks the monarch,
Is not the crown for me—
It dazzles but a moment;
Its brightness soon will flee.
But there's a crown prepared above,
For those who walk in humble love;
Forever bright 'twill be.
Oh! that's the crown for me, &c.

WORDS BY G. ARMSTRONG.

MUSIC BY W. J. KIRKPATRICK.

1. WHAT'S all this world to me? Je - sus not here. }
 What is't I long to see? Saviour appear. } What's all the joy and mirth,

In the whole heaven and earth?
 Oh! sure they're fled and gone, Jesus not here.

2. What made my heart divine?
 Jesus drew near;
 And in his likeness shine,
 He did appear.
 What made my moments sweet,
 When I knelt at his feet?
 Oh! sure I'll ne'er forget,
 Jesus was there.
3. And I'll once more entreat,
 Saviour appear;
 Yea, and I'll supplicate,
 Oh! now draw near.
 He whom I love so well,
 He in my heart shall dwell,
 And to the world I'll tell,
 Jesus is dear.
4. And through the gloom of death,
 Jesus is dear;
 When I resign my breath,
 He will appear.
 Angel bands will convey
 My happy soul away,
 And through eternity,
 Jesus is dear.
5. Then I'll see face to face,
 Jesus is dear;
 See all the ransomed race,
 How they draw near!
 All the saints in a throng,
 Join the extatic song,
 Shout, as they move along,
 Jesus is dear!

And enlist in the struggle her warm-hearted youth;
Let the parents and children, and every one say—
Speed away! speed away! speed away!
3. We will lay on the altar our money and prayers:
And we'll bathe every offering in sympathy's tears—
For the Jews and Mohammedans, Gentiles and all;
On Jehovah by night and by day will we call,
And ye heralds of mercy, oh! make no delay!
Speed away! speed away! speed away!
4. Go, angels! go, angels! fly away through the heaven—
To all nations of men, let the tidings be given,
That Messiah has triumphed—His foes are all slain,
And the earth, as an Eden, is blushing again!
O great Saviour, let nothing this conquest delay!
Speed away! speed away! speed away!

 All glory, all honour, all might and dominion,
 Who brought us through grace to the Eden of Love.
3. Hail! blessed estate! hail, ye songsters of glory!

He looks beyond old Jordan, he hears the billows roar,
But he knows he has a mansion on Canaan's happy shore,
Where the presence of the Lord is the sunlight of the day,
And the walls are decked with jewels that never fade away.
5. He hails with joy the morning that rules the Sabbath round,
And in the courts of Zion he is ever to be found,
His place among his brethren he is ever sure to fill,
And always ready with them to do his Master's will;
He trusts in the Lord, by his mercy and his love,
He'll be guided through life's pilgrimage triumphantly above.
6. Then, Christians, be determined and let us travel on,
Where storms of persecution and affliction never come;
And when these feeble bodies lie mouldering in the clay,
We'll wear a crown of glory that shall never fade away;
There we'll shout and sing hosanna! around the throne of God,
Who purchased our pardon with his most precious blood!

"Home, Sweet Home." 4 lines 11s.

1. WHEN clad in the gar-ments of sor-row and pain, And wand'ring distressed in temp-tation's do-main; When pressed by rude foes from my

Sa-viour to roam, Oh! how I de-sire to en-ter my home.

Chorus.

Home, home, sweet, sweet home, Assist me, my Saviour, in seeking my home.

2. The world is delusive, its charms soon must fade,
 A vortex of trifles, where trials invade;
 But while these combine to invest me with gloom,
 The Christian is cheered with the prospect of home.
Chorus.—Home, home, sweet, sweet home, &c

3. When tempests and dangers with fury molest,
And fearful emotions are tossing the breast,
The love of my Saviour disperses the gloom,
And fear is dispelled by the vision of home. (Chorus.)
4. The beamings of love my spirit shall cheer,
Shall chase all my gloom and dispel all my fear;
And joy shall support, while continuing to roam
On the road which will lead to my heavenly home. (Cho.)
5. While sickness assails, and death is in view,
Ere I sink in its arms and bid earth adieu,
The smiles of his grace the path shall illumine,
And light up the passage which leads to my home. (Cho.)
6. And when I arrive at the port of repose,
Released from afflictions, distresses, and woes,
My praises shall echo through glory's high dome,
And I'll never more leave my eternal sweet home. (Cho.)

“When I Surbey the Wondrous Cross.” L. M.

COPYRIGHT SECURED.

COMPOSED BY J. PATTERSON.

1. WHEN I sur-vey the wondrous cross On which the Prince of glory died, My rich-est gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.

2. Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.
3. See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down:
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
4. Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

"Contrast." P. M.

1. I HAVE sought round the verdant earth, For un - fad - ing joy ; }
I have tried ev' - ry source of mirth, But all, all will cloy. }

Lord, bestow on me Grace to set my spirit free ;
Thine the praise shall be, Mine, mine the joy.

2. I have wandered in mazes dark
Of doubt and distress,
I have not had a kindling spark
My spirit to bless.
Cheerless unbelief
Filled my laboring soul with grief;
What shall give relief?
What shall give peace?
3. I then turned to thy gospel, Lord,
From folly away,
I then trusted thy holy word,
That taught me to pray.
Here I found release ;
Weary spirit here found rest,
Hope of endless bliss—
Eternal day.
4. When my life's fearful strife is done,
Its sorrows all past,
Before my Redeemer's throne
My crown I will cast :
There where angels dwell,
Saints their highest rapture tell ;
This my song shall swell,
He died for me.
5. Oh! come, then, ye weary ones,
Who comfort ne'er know,
And here at the Saviour's throne
In prayerfulness bow ;
Guilt shall then remove,
Light shall cheer thee from above ;
Come—come—share his love—
Come, come away.

1. I'm hap - py, I'm hap - py! O won - drous ac - count! }
My joys are im - mor - tal, I stand on the mount. }

I gaze on my trea - sure, And long to be there,

With Je - sus, my Sa - viour, the king - dom to share.

Chorus.

Hal - le - lu - jah, hal - le - lu - jah, hal - le - lu - jah to the Lamb!

2. O Jesus, my Saviour, in thee I am blest!
My life and my treasure, my joy and my rest!
Thy grace be my theme, and thy name be my song:
Thy love doth inspire my heart and my tongue. (Chorus.)
3. Oh, who is like Jesus? he's Salem's bright King;
He smiles, and he loves me, he taught me to sing;
I'll praise him, I'll praise him, and bow to his will,
While rivers of pleasure my spirit do fill. (Chorus.)

MUSIC BY JOSIAH LOWE.

1. Look, ye saints, the sight is glorious,
See the man of sorrows now, From the fight re-turn'd victorious, Ev'ry knee to him shall bow.

Crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him,

Crowns become the victor's brow.
Crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him, &c.

2. Crown the Saviour, angels crown him!
Rich the trophies Jesus brings;
In the seat of power enthroned him,
While the heavenly concave rings:
Crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him,
Crown the Saviour King of kings.
3. Sinners in derision crowned him,
Mocking thus the Saviour's claim;
Saints and angels crowd around him,
Own his title, praise his name:
Crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him,
Spread abroad the victor's fame.
4. Hark! those bursts of acclamation!
Hark! those loud, triumphant chords!
Jesus takes the highest station;
Oh! what joy the sight affords!
Crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him,
King of kings and Lord of lords.

That blissful place is my fatherland.....	181
Then I'll sing and I'll shout hosanna!.....	56
Then join in hosannas to Jesus our King.....	180
Then raise the song, let every tongue.....	148
Then we'll cross the river of Jordan, happy, happy.....	138
There is rest for the weary.....	136
There you'll sing hallelujah!.....	77, 91
There weary souls shall be at rest.....	160
There we'll sing redeeming love.....	14
There's power in Jesus' blood.....	101
There's room enough in heaven for you.....	154
This world is not my home.....	84
Through grace I'm bound to die in the army.....	104
'Tis a song from the home of the weary.....	21
Turn to the Lord and seek redemption.....	151
Victory! victory!.....	161
Waft me, oh! waft me safely o'er.....	170
Wash me, Lord, from all sin.....	41
We are on our way to Canaan.....	195
We are passing away.....	99
We have but the one more river to cross.....	187
We will be happy.....	184
When this poor body lies mouldering in the tomb.....	167
Weep no more, oh! my friends.....	45
Weep, weep, mourn, mourn.....	87
We'll be there, we'll be there in a little while.....	63
We'll join the pilgrim band.....	169
We'll wait till Jesus comes.....	110
We're all united, heart and hand.....	44
We're marching through Immanuel's ground.....	188
We're marching to glory.....	143
Will you go? will you go? will you go?.....	80
With the land in view we'll journey on.....	137
